

THE NATIONAL BOARD OF CERTIFICATION FOR MEDICAL INTERPRETERS

2015 ANNUAL REPORT

Medical Interpreters Certified 2015

Active certifications are those CMI credentials that are not expired, either because the original expiration date has not yet been reached or because the interpreter chose to recertify (renew the credential rather than allowing it to expire). Total certified to date includes all CMI credentials that have been issued by the National Board in each of the six languages as of 12/31/15 (both active and expired).

About the National Board

The National Board of Certification for Medical Interpreters (NBCMI) is an independent division of the International Medical Interpreters Association (IMIA). The National Board was founded in 2009.

MISSION

THE MISSION OF THE NATIONAL BOARD IS TO FOSTER IMPROVED HEALTHCARE OUTCOMES, PATIENT SAFETY, AND PATIENT/PROVIDER COMMUNICATION, BY ELEVATING THE STANDARDS FOR AND QUALITY OF MEDICAL INTERPRETING THROUGH A NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED AND VALIDATED CERTIFICATION FOR MEDICAL INTERPRETERS.

Making a World of Difference

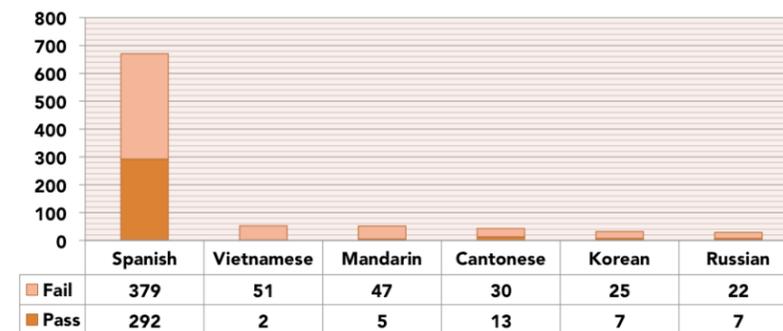

In addition to the six CMI languages, here are some of the other languages spoken by the medical interpreters who registered with the National Board this year:

Amharic Armenian Azerbaijani Bosnian Burmese
Catalan Farsi Hindi Hungarian Japanese Khmer
Kirundi Nepali Punjabi Tigrinya Ukrainian Urdu
